

STREET REPAIR UTILITY ENTERPRISE

FEE STRUCTURE

Customer Groupings and Classifications

Retail Business: Business that primarily sell a product.

Restaurant: Businesses that primarily sell food and beverages.

Institutional: Schools, religious, daycare, government and other similar.

Industrial: Manufacturing, warehouses, communications, utilities, construction and other similar.

Services: Businesses that primarily provide a service (not a product).

Criteria determining large vs small: A Business entity's property size that is 43,560 sf and less is classified as Small. A Business entity's property size that is larger than 43,560 sf is classified as Large.

- Residential (Per Dwelling Unit).
 - This includes all types of residential units such as single family, duplexes, multiplex, and apartments.
- Small Service Business.
 - Shall include offices, repair shops providing a service and not a product that fit the property size criteria.
- Small Retail.
 - Shall include the selling of a product, restaurant, fast food, tire retail, and other retail that fit the property size criteria.
- Small Institutional.
 - Shall include elementary and middle schools, churches, daycares and other institutions that fit the property size criteria.
- Large Service Business.
 - Shall include call centers, other service business fitting the property size criteria.

- Large Retail.
 - Shall include Big Box Stores, other retail stores fitting the property size criteria.

- Large Institutional.
 - Shall include high schools, colleges, universities and other institutions that fit the property size criteria.