The Joy of Reading

"My kids cannot wait to go to the library to get books. We have reading hour every night now."

- Parent

"This program made my child very excited! When asked, my child said 'I just can't believe I made $100 all by myself!.'"

- Parent

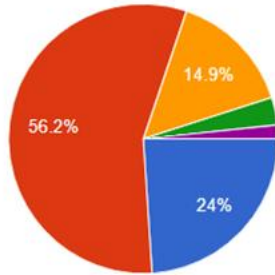

"My girl was so motivated to go to the library and pick books... she wrote 10 book reports! She was so proud of herself as she felt she had written her 'first book.' I had struggled with homeschooling her so she hated reading. This program was just perfect with getting her motivated to read, she realized that she could! She is now a top reader in her class"

Financial Literacy

"We opened the savings account to put her money in to save. Then I gave her $20 of it to spend on whatever she wanted. We have added more money to [the account] several times and she gets excited every time we deposit money" - Parent

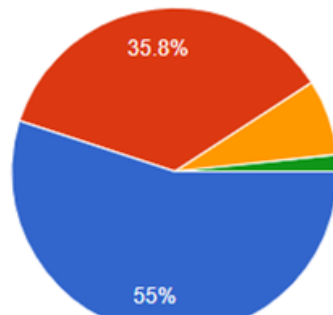

"I enjoyed watching the life experience unfold. My child waited for [the voucher] to come in the mail. We then had to make a plan and time to go to the bank. There, she got to interact with the teller on her own, receive her money, and handle it. After properly putting our money in a safe place, we then learned how to complete a deposit slip and made time to go to a drive thru bank and deposit it. The whole experience was EXTREMELY valuable"- Parent

Visit the Library

Before the Reading Pays program, my child understood how to find books, information, and community resources by utilizing the library.

children understanding how to utilize their public library.

Library Usage

"My child utilized the library card at the self checkout machine on her own for the first time and managed her books and personal information. She felt very official. Coupled with the financial earnings element, it seemed to take her to the next level. "

- Parent

"This was an excellent opportunity because my children were able to utilize the librarian whom we normally adore from afar. They wanted help and so I instructed to politely request what they were seeking. It was an awesome experience because they got practice indicating their needs to a non-parental adult, and then followed the librarian to a treasure trove of books"
