

Background Paper for Proposed Ordinance

COUNCIL MEETING DATE: March 14, 2022

TO: President Heather Graham and Members of City Council
CC: Mayor Nicholas A. Gradisar
VIA: Marisa Stoller, City Clerk
FROM: Michael Miller, Assistant City Attorney
SUBJECT: AN ORDINANCE AMENDING CHAPTER 1 OF TITLE XI OF THE PUEBLO MUNICIPAL CODE UPDATING OFFENSES AGAINST PROPERTY PROVISIONS IN ACCORDANCE WITH CHANGES TO THE COLORADO REVISED STATUTES

SUMMARY:

This Ordinance amends various provisions of the Pueblo Municipal Code to expand the Municipal Court's authority in accordance with State law.

PREVIOUS COUNCIL ACTION:

There has been no previous council action.

BACKGROUND:

The Municipal Court does not hear cases that could be filed as a felony in Colorado's District Courts. As a result, thefts from a merchant, theft from a non-merchant, and destruction of property cannot be prosecuted in municipal court unless the value of the thing stolen/damaged is one-thousand dollars ($1,000) or less.

The Colorado Legislature has amended the Colorado Revised Statutes to classify theft and destruction of property (called criminal mischief under the statutes) as felonies if the value of the thing stolen/damaged is more than two-thousand dollars $2,000.

This Ordinance will amend the Municipal Code to allow the municipal court to hear theft from merchant, theft from non-merchant, and destruction of property cases where the value of the thing stolen/damaged is less than two-thousand dollars ($2,000), mirroring the definitions in the Colorado Revised Statutes.

The Colorado Legislature has also deleted the provision of the Colorado Revised Statutes that makes theft of a motor vehicle part a felony. Thefts of motor vehicle parts will be handled at the state level in the same manner as other thefts. This ordinance removes the theft of motor vehicle parts over one-thousand dollars ($1,000) exception from the Municipal Code.

FINANCIAL IMPLICATIONS:

If this Ordinance passes, the Municipal Court could see more theft from merchant, theft from non-merchant, and destruction of property cases filed in municipal court. This could result in more fines being collected by the Municipal Court but would also require more staff time to process the additional cases. Any impact on the City's finances is expected to be minimal.

BOARD/COMMISSION RECOMMENDATION:

Not applicable to this Ordinance.

STAKEHOLDER PROCESS:

Not applicable to this Ordinance.

ALTERNATIVES:

If this Ordinance does not pass, the Municipal Court will be unable to hear some cases that would be considered misdemeanors under Colorado Law. State courts do not prosecute theft cases where the amount of the theft is less than $2,000 and therefore, some thefts may occur without consequence.

RECOMMENDATION:

Passage of the Ordinance
