We are a non-profit in Pueblo providing services, support, and advocacy for people experiencing life disruptions due to substance use and mental health disorders. We also provide support for their loved ones and the communities affected by this epidemic.

- The overdose death rate in Colorado spiked to an all-time high in 2020 which is the largest jump in over 20 years. The rate increased by 38% and 1,477 lives were lost due to overdoses in our state.

- Last year, 956 people died of an opioid overdose, according to State data. This represented a 54% increase from 2019 in the number of deaths caused by opioids.

- This category also includes fentanyl, an opioid that can be deadly in small amounts and is increasingly present in street drugs including counterfeit pills and cocaine.

- In Colorado, fentanyl-associated deaths more than doubled — from 222 deaths in 2019 to 540 deaths in 2020 according to CDPHE, the state public health system.

“Though only five percent of the world's population lives in the United States, it is home to 25 percent of the world's prison population.”

White people are very underrepresented in state prisons while almost every other racial and ethnic group is overrepresented

Sources: Bureau of Justice Statistics' Survey of Prison Inmates, 2016 data analyzed by the Prison Policy Initiative, and U.S. Census Bureau, American Community Survey 2016, Table DP05. All categories other than Hispanic include only those identifying as non-Hispanic. The Census Bureau collects data on Asian and Native Hawaiian/Pacific Islander people separately; the U.S. population was 5.2% Asian and 0.2% Native Hawaiian/ Pacific Islander.

Many people in state prisons grew up facing serious family, housing, economic, and educational challenges

Instead of receiving support, most were criminalized as kids.

▸ The Future of the Past

The forging of steel into the sinews of the American economic juggernaut was and is an act of brilliance and bravery — of service and sacrifice.

*— from Forged Together in the Bessemer Neighborhood

Nestled snugly against the massive stacks and stoves of the old Colorado Fuel & Iron Steel Mill, the neighborhood of Bessemer has always been viewed through a smoky lense. A neighborhood historic context study commissioned by the City of Pueblo's Historic Preservation Commission, funded and supported financially by Bessemer Historical Society and Historic Pueblo, Inc. dramatically changes that notion. The history of the Bessemer neighborhood has always been closely tied to the steel mill but it has a depth and diversity that is all its own. Bessemer is easily one of the most ethnically diverse neighborhoods in Colorado and the Rocky Mountain West.

▶ New Grocery Store for Bessemer

We believe everyone — no matter your circumstances — deserves to experience the joy of picking out fresh, healthy groceries. That's why we are creating a new kind of food pantry and market on the first floor of the Bessemer Community Center to deal with the lack of access to healthy foods. This is just the next chapter as we continue to grow and build capacity to ensure equitable access to health care and nutritional food.
