I. APPROVAL OF AGENDA

Approved

II. APPROVAL OF MINUTES

May 18, 2022 Minutes

Motioned by Campbell, second by Scoby. Motion passes 7-0.

V. Old/New Businesses

1. Introduction of New Library Staff

Jasel Cantu was not able to make the meeting on Zoom due to a technical issue.

2. Pueblo Chemical Depot Preservation

Broadhead gave a brief update on Section 106 referral from the Pueblo Chemical Depot on their historic resources. There is no county preservation commission, so the City's commission is the closest group. A short discussion ensued on the possibility of creating a city county preservation commission.

3. Plaza Verde Park Preservation Update

Broadhead gave an update about landmarking the Chicano Community mural in Plaza Verde Park. The mural was mentioned in the endangered nomination by the national trust but the mural is safe. The space of the park is significant as well as the mural. Broadhead had a call with Lucha Luna and Charlene Simms about landmarking the mural.

4. NAPC Forum

Broadhead gave a short update to his visit to NAPC Forum 2022 in Cincinnati, OH. Broadhead gave two staff presentations and took numerous tours about community development.

There was a short discussion on the Albany (125 E. 7th st) fire and current situation.

5. First AME Church 615 E. Mesa Ave

Broadhead gave an update on the local landmark nomination for First AME Church. He expects it to be submitted in September or October.

V. ANNOUNCEMENTS

1. None

VII. ADJOURN

Howell adjourned the meeting at 2:37 by Campbell

Minutes respectfully submitted by Wade Broadhead.
