GUIDELINES FOR BOARD AND COMMISSION MEMBERS

WELCOME

Welcome to the City of Pueblo! Your selection as an active member of a Mayor-appointed board or commission will provide you with a valuable opportunity for genuine public service, and we thank you for your contribution. The specific duties of each board and commission vary widely, you should become familiar with your board or commission's rules and procedures. These guidelines will assist you in maximizing your contribution to our community.

REPRESENTATION OF A BOARD OR COMMISSION

As an individual member of a board or commission, you must not represent your personal views or recommendations as those of the board or commission unless the majority of the body has officially voted to approve such action. Board or commission members making recommendations or expressing views which have not been approved by a majority of the board should indicate they are expressing individual opinions and are not speaking on behalf of the board or the City. In some circumstances, such as membership on a quasi-judicial board, you should not express individual opinions outside the hearing.

Public statements should contain no promises that may be construed to be binding on a board or commission, staff, City of Pueblo, the Mayor, or the City Council. When making a public statement, members should remind listeners that board actions are recommendations (unless otherwise provided by law) and that final action will be taken by the City Council and/or the Mayor. Remember that your actions and statements as a board or commission member assume special significance, and if not responsibly discharged, could result in a situation detrimental to the City's best interests.

Although board and commission members may be selected, in part, on the basis of representing specific interest groups, each member should represent the overall public good and not that of an exclusive group or interest.

RELATIONSHIP WITH OTHER MEMBERS

On many occasions, the success or failure of the efforts of a board or commission is dependent upon the degree of cooperation evident among the individual members of the body. We encourage you to keep the following points in mind in your interactions with other members:

- Show respect for another's viewpoint.
- Allow others adequate time to present their views fully before making comments.
- Be open and honest.
- Welcome new members and help them become acquainted with their duties.
- Strive to minimize political action among members.

CHARGE: A Checklist for Effectiveness

C – Charter

Am I familiar with . . .

- The Charter of the City of Pueblo in general?
- The specific function of my board or commission as outlined in the Agreement, Resolution, or Ordinance that it was created by?
- What my fellow board members and I expect to achieve for the community?
- The name of the staff liaison assigned to my board or commission?

H – Hierarchy

Do I understand . . .

- How my board or commission's work affects the community?
- The scope of authority of my board or commission?
- The role of my board's staff liaison?
- The role of my board or commission chairperson?
- My role as a board or commission member?

A – Accountability

Do I understand . . .

- My board or commission's liability and my own liability as an individual member?
- What constitutes a conflict of interest?
- Exactly how the law requires that a conflict of interest be handled?
- My board's accountability to the public?

R – Responsibility

Do I . . .

- Attend all board and commission meetings?
- Prepare for the meetings by studying the agenda and supplemental materials ahead of time?
- Complete the tasks I have volunteered to take on?
- Know what responsibilities each of us, as individual board members, has to our board colleagues?

G – Goals

Do I know . . .

- My board or commission's goals for the next term?
- What tasks must be completed to reach each of our goals?
- Deadlines for the tasks for which I am responsible?

E – Evaluation

Have I . . .

- Discussed with other members and staff what our board or commission can do to improve our performance?

CODE OF ETHICS

Upon appointment, all newly appointed members of boards and commissions are provided with a copy of Title I, Chapter 9 from the Pueblo Municipal Code referencing the Code of Ethics for all board and commission members. Board and commission members should be familiar with these guidelines. A copy of the Code of Ethics is attached as Appendix I.

INTRODUCTION TO CITY GOVERNMENT

CITY COUNCIL

The Pueblo City Council is composed of four district Council members and three Council members elected at-large, who are elected on a nonpartisan basis for four-year terms. The President of City Council is chosen from among the entire Council and serves a term of one year.

The City Council serves as the community's legislative body, and is responsible for approving City ordinances and resolutions, and appropriating funds to conduct City business. By provision of the City Charter, City Council members are specifically prohibited from giving direction to any of the City staff members.

MAYOR

The City of Pueblo operates within a Mayor-Council form of government. The Mayor is the Chief Executive Officer of the City and is responsible for the overall management of City operations.

Among other powers, the Mayor has the authority to...

- a) Enforce the laws and ordinances of the City;
- b) Appoint, suspend, and remove heads or directors of all bureaus, departments, and city employees;
- c) Exercise supervision and control over all executive and administrative departments and agencies created by the City Charter or by the City Council;
- d) Prepare the Budget annually and submit it to the Council and be responsible for its administration after adoption;
- e) Prepare a written State of the City report annually;
- f) Keep the Council advised of the financial condition and future needs of the City, and make such recommendations to the Council for adoption as he or she may deem necessary or expedient;
- g) Enforce all terms and conditions imposed in favor of the City or its inhabitants in any contract or public utility franchise and upon knowledge of any violation thereof, report the same to the Council for such action and proceedings as may be necessary to enforce the same;
- h) Appoint the Deputy Mayor subject to Council confirmation;
- i) Appoint the members of City boards and commissions pursuant to Charter Section 2-5;
- j) Recommend to the Council such measures and ordinances as he or she may deem necessary or expedient, and to make such other recommendations to the Council concerning the affairs of the City as the Mayor finds desirable; and

- k) Participate in discussions of the Council in an advisory capacity, and have the right to attend and be heard at any regular, special, open or closed session meeting of the Council, but not have the right to vote at such meetings.

GENERAL INFORMATION

GENERAL PROVISIONS

Details about boards and commissions may be found in Article 2, Section 2-5 of the City Charter and in Title II, Chapter 1, Article I of the Municipal Code. The Mayor, with the approval of City Council, may establish appointive boards and commissions to advise the City on various issues and perform such functions as the Council or Mayor may designate. The agreement, ordinance, or resolution establishing each board or commission prescribes the powers, duties, and operating procedures of the board or commission; and establishes the terms of office of the board or commission members, including initial overlapping terms.

Applications for any Mayor-appointed board, commission, or advisory committee must be submitted to the Office of the Mayor on or before the published deadline. Applications received after the published deadline will not be considered; however, will be kept on file for the next available position on that board, commission, or advisory committee.

All board and commission members are subject to removal by the Mayor. Any vacancy during the unexpired term of any member is filled by the Mayor, subject to Council confirmation, for the remainder of the term. Each board and commission shall choose its own chairperson from among its members. The Mayor may change any or all of the powers, duties, and procedures of any board or commission and may abolish any board or commission which is not required by the Charter or law.

MEMBERSHIP TERM LIMITS

The following limitations and requirements are applied to board and commission membership:

- There are term limits for board or commission members appointed by the Mayor. Generally, service on a board or commission is limited to 2 consecutive terms. (Resolution No. 13614, 2-13-17)
- Certain boards and commissions require that members reside within the Incorporated City of Pueblo, as specified in the agreement, ordinance, or resolution that created the committee, or in the boards or commission's bylaws.

STAFF LIAISON ROLE

Staff support is available to boards and commissions through the various staff members assigned as liaisons to help each group. A board's and commission's staff liaison is responsible for the following:

- Prepare the agenda and review it with the chairperson prior to distribution.
- Distribute the agenda packet.
- Ensure that a copy of the meeting notice is posted on the Official Bulletin Board at least twenty-four hours prior to the meeting. The meeting notice may be e-mailed to the City Clerk's Assistant, who will then post the notice (Office of the City Clerk).

- Ensure the recording and distribution of meeting minutes. The length and content of minutes will vary with the needs and legal requirements of each board and shall include minimum requirements listed under “Meeting Responsibilities” in this Manual.
- Handle coordination regarding meeting scheduling, setup, and public notification.
- Ensure new members are oriented to the board, including procedures and projects.
- If the board or commission desires to adopt bylaws, work with members and the City Attorney’s Office to write bylaws and send a copy to the City Clerk after formal adoption by the board.
- Ensure the election of officers is held each year and inform the Boards and Commissions Coordinator of the results of each election.
- Provide information to the board or commission regarding policy changes and distribute updated information to all members.
- Advise the Boards and Commission Coordinator (the Mayor’s Office) of the following:
 - Attendance problems
 - Resignations
 - Meeting schedule/location changes
 - Name/address/phone number changes for board or commission members
 - Staff/name/title/phone number changes for staff liaisons

It should be noted that staff liaisons are not authorized to:

- Override a decision of the City Council or Mayor.
- Serve as a resource for projects outside of a board’s or commission’s mission and goals.
- Serve as a communications link between the City Council or Mayor and board or commission members.

In order to initiate and dedicate staff time to policy investigation, consideration of an ordinance or other significant projects:

- The request must be supported by a majority of the entire board or commission.
- If a majority agrees, the board should first contact the Mayor and staff liaison.
- The staff liaison will work with the board to seek direction from the Mayor and City Attorney on the appropriateness of the request and will provide direction on whether staff should proceed.
- From time to time, staff liaisons may prepare memorandums to the Mayor at the request of the board or commission. These communications are sent directly to the Mayor. It is the responsibility of the Mayor to respond directly to the board or commission if the Mayor so chooses. The staff liaison is not responsible for monitoring or ensuring a response from the Mayor.

ATTENDANCE POLICY

Upon application for and acceptance of appointment, board and commission members demonstrate their intention and ability to attend meetings. If a member experiences recurring attendance problems, the chairperson of the board or commission shall contact the member and remind them of the attendance policy.

All members of boards and commissions serve at the pleasure of the Mayor. The Mayor may remove any member at any time for non-attendance at board or commission meetings. As a general rule of thumb, members will be referred for dismissal if they fail to attend three consecutive meetings, however, the Mayor may choose to remove members for any reason that amounts to good cause.

In the event that a vacancy occurs by reason of absence without excuse, the staff liaison shall notify the Boards and Commissions Coordinator and the Mayor shall prepare a letter notifying the board or commission member that he or she has been removed from the board or commission, and the Boards and Commissions Coordinator will prepare a resolution removing the board or commission member.

VACANCIES

When the terms of incumbent board or commission members are due to expire, the Boards and Commissions Coordinator will contact incumbent board or commission members to see if they are interested in being considered for reappointment.

The Boards and Commissions Coordinator will then send an advertisement to be published in the Public Notices section of the Pueblo Chieftain, seeking individuals to apply for the vacancies. An announcement on the Mayor's webpage will also be posted.

Once the deadline for applications has expired, the Boards and Commissions Coordinator will prepare a list of applicants for the Mayor's consideration. The Mayor will then select the applicant(s) to be appointed and inform the Boards and Commissions Coordinator. The Boards and Commissions Coordinator will then prepare a resolution to be sent to the City Council for confirmation. Once confirmed by the City Council, applicants will officially be on the board or commission. If the City Council does not confirm the applicant(s) they will not be appointed to serve on the board or commission.

Applications for any Mayor-appointed board, commission or advisory committee must be submitted to the Office of the City Clerk on or before the published deadline. Applications received after the published deadline will not be considered; however, will be kept on file for the next available position on that board, commission, or advisory committee.

Staff liaisons are responsible for notifying the Boards and Commissions Coordinator when a member resigns. The staff liaison should request a letter of resignation from the board or commission member, to be forwarded to the Boards and Commissions Coordinator, who will then begin the process to fill the vacancy.

The Mayor, subject to Council confirmation, will appoint replacements by official resolution as needed. The Boards and Commissions Coordinator will notify the staff liaison of appointments.

ELECTION OF OFFICERS

The election of officers should be held each year. The staff liaison should notify the Boards and Commissions Coordinator of the names of the elected officers.

ORIENTATION AND TRAINING

The City of Pueblo's insurance carrier, CIRSA (Colorado Intergovernmental Risk Sharing Agency), provides training with regard to liability issues of board and commission members. All members of City boards and commissions are required to complete the training within six (6) months of appointment. CIRSA training information is available in Appendix II. Additionally, staff liaisons should provide new board members with pertinent materials which will assist new members in becoming fully functioning members of the board/commission. Established board and commission members are encouraged to share their experience and knowledge with new members.

BUDGET

Generally, budgets are not established for boards and commissions. However, if funds are necessary for the routine business of boards and commissions, they shall be included in the departmental budget for the department that provides staff support to a board or commission.

BYLAWS

The Municipal Code provides that all boards and commissions may adopt bylaws which are consistent with the Charter, the Code or other policies that may be established by the City. A copy of the bylaws must be filed with the City Clerk for the use of the City immediately after adoption by the board or commission, and they may be subject to the approval of the City Council and/or the Mayor.

MEETING RESPONSIBILITIES

CONDUCT OF MEETINGS

It is important that boards and commissions conduct their meetings in a manner that is procedurally correct. The Colorado Municipal League has published a handbook entitled "Boards and Commissions Handbook." This publication contains excellent materials for the conduct of meetings. It is recommended that boards and commissions follow the procedures for the conduct of meetings as established in the Colorado Municipal League publication, and that Robert's Rules of Order, Newly Revised, be followed as recommended by the Colorado Municipal League publication, provided, however, that the chairpersons of City boards and commissions shall be permitted to participate in the debate of matters presented to such boards and commissions and shall also be permitted to vote on all motions made by members of such boards and commissions, to the same extent and with the same effect as other members. These rules of procedure may also be further modified by each board or commission, upon majority vote, if the board or commission believes that such modification would enable it to better meet its responsibilities under the Code or Charter and to fulfill its functions. Additionally, in those instances where Robert's Rules of Order may be inconsistent with the provisions of the City Charter or Code of Ordinances of the City, the Charter and Code of Ordinances shall take precedence.

OPEN MEETINGS

The Municipal Code and Colorado Law specifically require that all meetings of a board or commission, and all meetings of any committee of a board or commission, shall be open to the public at all times, except when the board or commission is meeting in a validly convened executive session.

The term "meeting" is defined as a gathering of a quorum or three or more members, whichever is fewer, of any board or commission, or any committee of such board or commission, at which any public business is discussed or at which any formal action may be taken. It is important to remember that the open meeting requirements apply to more than just in-person gatherings. They also apply to telephone conference calls, electronic “chat room” conferences, or any other means of communication where conference-like communication can occur. However, the term “meeting” does not include a chance meeting or social gathering at which the discussion of public business is not the central purpose.

NOTICE REQUIREMENT

Full and timely notice to the public must be given prior to the holding of any meeting of a board or commission (or committee of a board or commission) at which a majority or quorum is in attendance or is expected to be in attendance or at which formal action could be taken.

Notices of meetings must be posted on the Official Bulletin Board no less than twenty-four hours prior to the meeting. The Official Bulletin Board is located on the first floor of City Hall, #1 City Hall Place, Pueblo, Colorado. The staff liaison is responsible for ensuring posting of notices of meetings or e-mailing notices of meetings to the City Clerk’s Office, who will then post the notices.

QUORUM REQUIREMENTS

In order for a board or commission to conduct any business or take any formal action, it is necessary that a quorum of the membership be present at the meeting. A quorum is defined as the minimum number of members of a group necessary to conduct the business of that group, which is sometimes the majority of the total number of members specified by the Municipal Code to comprise the board or commission. This quorum requirement does not change even if a position on the board or commission is vacant and the Mayor has not appointed a replacement. In the event that a quorum is not present for a meeting, those present can adjourn the meeting to a later date and time, unless otherwise provided in the board or commission bylaws or Municipal Code.

MINUTES

Minutes shall be taken at any meeting of a board or commission at which the adoption of any proposed policy, position, resolution, rule, regulation, or formal action occurs or could occur. The minutes must be open to public inspection and a copy maintained with the staff liaison.

While the minutes should be as accurate as possible, the recording secretary is not required to record every remark made at the meeting. The recording secretary should not make the minutes a verbatim transcript.

The minutes should include a description of each item being discussed. Listing questions and answers during discussion of each item is not necessary; however, comments that summarize board member positions on each item should be included as support for each board member’s vote on each issue. (NOTE: It is important that the minutes reflect the reasons for dissenting votes.) The exact wording of any motion made should be included in the minutes, and the maker and second of the motion should be noted. If the motion is approved or defeated unanimously, such should be noted. If the vote on a motion is split, the record should reflect those voting in favor of the motion and those voting against the motion. (NOTE: Special matters such as annexation and zoning hearings may require considerably more detail. Items being forwarded for City Council consideration should also include more detail.)

Approval of Minutes:

- Any additions, deletions, or corrections to the minutes should be presented by board and staff members.
- A motion should be made and seconded to approve the minutes of the last meeting as amended.
- The approved minutes should be signed by the chairperson and secretary of the board or commission.

ADJOURNMENT

Recording adjournment of a meeting in the minutes is advisable, since it indicates whether the meeting was finally adjourned, or adjourned to another time prior to the next regular meeting. The adjournment should specify the time when the meeting was adjourned to a later date and hour.

EXECUTIVE SESSIONS

The holding of an executive session is the only time that a meeting of a board or commission may lawfully be conducted privately. Because of the strong interest in maintaining an open and public government, the Municipal Code and the courts have strictly limited the use of executive sessions to certain prescribed situations.

For most boards and commissions, the use of executive sessions is a rare event and board and commission members are encouraged to obtain advice in advance from the City Attorney's Office if they contemplate requesting such a session.

The Municipal Code provides that any board or commission, upon the affirmative vote of 2/3 of the quorum present, may go into executive session for considering such matters as would be permissible for consideration by the City Council in executive session, insofar as such matters may be pertinent to the purposes for which the board or commission has been established. The permissible purposes are generally as follows:

- To discuss the purchase, acquisition, lease, transfer, or sale of real, personal, or other property interest under C.R.S. Section 24-6-402(4)(a);
- For a conference with the City Attorney for receiving legal advice on specific legal questions under C.R.S. Section 24-6-402(4)(b);
- For discussion of a matter required to be kept confidential by federal or state law, rule, or regulation under C.R.S. Section 24-6-402(4)(c);
- For discussion of specialized details of security arrangements or investigations under C.R.S. Section 24-6-402(4)(d);
- For determining positions relative to matters that may be subject to negotiations, developing strategy for negotiations, and/or instructing negotiators, under C.R.S. Section 24-6-402(4)(e);
- For discussion of a personnel matter under C.R.S. Section 24-6-402(4)(f) and not involving: any specific employees who have requested discussion of the matter in open session; any member of the City Council or any elected official; the appointment of any person to fill an office of the City Council or of an elected official; or personnel policies that do not require the discussion of matters personal to particular employees;
- For consideration of documents protected by the mandatory nondisclosure provisions of the Open Records Act under C.R.S. Section 24-6-402(4)(g);

A motion to go into an executive session must contain a statement as to the topic for the executive session. The statement as to the topic for the executive session must provide as much detail as possible without compromising the purpose for which the executive session is to be held. However, it is not necessary or advisable to identify a confidential component of the topic, such as the specific individual or specific property that the executive session will concern. Additionally, the motion to go into an executive session must specifically cite the provision of the Colorado Revised Statutes that authorizes the board or commission to meet in executive session. An example of a valid motion to go into an executive session is as follows:

“I move to go into executive session for the purpose of determining positions relative to matters that may be subject to negotiations, developing strategy for negotiations and/or instructing negotiators, under C.R.S. Section 24-6-402(4)(e) specifically to instruct Pueblo Economic Development Corporation relating to job creating capital improvement projects; and to discuss the purchase, acquisition, lease, transfer, or sale of real, personal or other property; and meeting with the City Attorney to receive legal advice regarding potential litigation and the manner in which the board’s action may be affected by existing law.”

In order to convene an executive session, it is necessary that the motion to do so be made at an open and validly convened regular or special meeting of the board or commission. The motion must be approved by not less than two-thirds (2/3) of the quorum present at the meeting. The minutes of the regular or special meeting must specifically reflect the motion, the topic of the proposed executive session, the specific citation of the Municipal Code authorizing the executive session, and the vote upon the motion.

An audio recording must be made of all discussions that occur in an executive session, except those discussions that constitute a privileged attorney-client communication. In that attorney-client situation, a recording need not be made so long as the attorney is present at the executive session and the audio recording of the executive session discussion reflects the fact that no further record was kept of the discussion based on the opinion of said attorney that the discussion constitutes a privileged attorney-client communication. The board or commission may choose to record the privileged attorney-client communication portion of the executive session so there is no question about the propriety of going “off the record.”

The audio tape of an executive session must be maintained for not less than 90 days, after which the tape may be destroyed pursuant to the City’s document retention policy. It is important to realize that any person may file an application with the District Court challenging the lawfulness of an executive session. In such a circumstance, the District Court Judge would review the audio tape to determine whether or not the requirements of the Colorado Revised Statutes were met. If the above described legal requirements were not met, the Court will make public that portion of the executive session that either strayed from the appropriate topic or where formal action was taken.

During an executive session, the board or commission cannot make final policy decisions, adopt resolutions, or take other formal action. If a board or commission does attempt to take formal or final action in an executive session, such action would be void and of no effect. Information received by board and commission members in an executive session should be kept confidential by the members. A member could become criminally liable for misuse of official information if a member used confidential information for his or her personal pecuniary gain or aided another in achieving a pecuniary benefit. Disclosure of confidential information could also result in the loss of liability protection under the Colorado Governmental Immunity Act for the individual making the disclosure and removal from membership on the board or commission. Only the body can waive the executive session privilege, individual members may not.

CONFLICT OF INTEREST GUIDELINES

INTRODUCTION

The members of City boards and commissions are subject to certain rules of ethical conduct established by the City Charter and Code. The following summary highlights the primary areas of concern addressed by these rules. When in doubt, a board or commission member should consult with the City Attorney for clarification of any applicable regulations. Ultimately, each member is responsible for his or her own compliance with all applicable laws and regulations.

CONFLICTS OF INTEREST

A board or commission member should refrain from voting on or attempting to influence any decision in which he or she has a financial or personal conflict of interest. Generally, a board or commission member has a financial interest in a decision when the decision entails some foreseeable, measurable financial benefit or detriment to the individual member or relative. Even if a member does not have a financial interest in a decision or recommendation, a personal interest may also create a conflict of interest. The test for a personal interest is whether, in the judgement of a reasonably prudent person, the board or commission member would realize or experience some direct and substantial benefit or detriment different in kind from that experienced by the general public. In applying this test in a business context, a board or commission member should check with the City Attorney before participating in any decision which directly and substantially affects a business in which he or she either has a substantial financial interest or is engaged as a consultant or representative. Or, if a decision of the City might directly and substantially affect a particular business to its economic detriment, and a board or commission member has a substantial financial interest in a competing firm, the member should also exercise caution in deciding whether to participate in the decision.

CONTRACTS WITH THE CITY

No City official or employee of the City shall be financially interested, directly or indirectly, in the sale of any land, materials, supplies or services to the City, unless it be by competitive bidding or not exceeding the sum of one hundred dollars ($100.00) in any calendar year; in cases of emergency necessary to protect the public health, safety, and welfare, competitive bidding may be waived. Members of boards or commissions shall be permitted to provide technical or professional services to the City where such services are exempt from the requirements of competitive bidding. (PMC §1-9-7(b)).

DISCLOSURE OF CONFIDENCES

Board and commission members sometimes receive confidential information from City staff. Such information should not be used for the private benefit of the board or commission member or any other individual. Additionally, disclosure of the information is prohibited if a reasonable person would consider that the disclosure would injure the financial interests of the City.

GIFTS AND FAVORS

The acceptance of gifts is generally prohibited; especially when the acceptance of the gift or favor is from persons doing business with the City and if the gift or favor might reasonably be construed as compensation for an official decision or as something that would tend to impair the board or commission member's independence of judgment in the performance of his or her official duties. The following specific items are excluded from the definition of prohibited gifts or favors and may be accepted:

- Non-pecuniary awards for public service.
- Reimbursement for expenditure of attending job-related conferences or other meetings.
- Invitations to social functions or meetings which are not extraordinary when viewed in the light of the position held by the board or commission member.
- Perishable or nonpermanent value items such as meals, lodging, travel expenses, or tickets to sporting, recreation, educational or cultural events.
- Salary from outside employment.

CHECKLIST

The following questions are suggested when examining a potential conflict of interest or question of ethical conduct. If the answer to the question is "yes," the board or commission member should avoid participating in the decision of engaging in the proposed transaction:

- Sales to the City: Will I or my relative receive some foreseeable, measurable financial benefit? Am I involved in the procurement or supervision?
- Financial Interest in a Decision: Will I or my relative receive some foreseeable, measurable financial benefit?
- Personal Interests: Would a reasonably prudent person believe that I or my relative will realize or experience some direct and substantial benefit or detriment from this decision that is different in kind from that experienced by the general public? Will the business that either of us represents directly and substantially benefit? Will a competing firm be directly and substantially harmed?
- Gifts or Favors: Is this gift or favor being offered to me because of a decision I have made or am about to make? Would a reasonably prudent person think that this gift or favor would impair my independence of judgment? (Before deciding to accept a gift, it should fit under one of the exemptions in the Code.)
- Confidences: Am I about to use or disclose a confidence which, in the judgment of a reasonably prudent person, would injure the financial interests of the City? Will I be using it for private gain, either for myself or for another person?

Appendix I. Code of Ethics

Sec. 1-9-1. - Legislative declaration.

The City Council recognizes the importance of the participation of the citizens of the City in all levels of government in the City. The City Council further recognizes that, when citizens of the City obtain public office, conflicts may arise between the public duty of such a citizen and his or her private interest. The City Council hereby declares that the prescription of uniform standards of conduct for City officials and employees consistent with those applicable to local governments adopted by the Colorado legislature is beneficial to the citizens of the City. The provisions of this Chapter recognize that some actions are conflicts per se between public duty and private interest while other actions may or may not pose such conflicts depending upon the surrounding circumstances.

- (1) Mission Statement. A mission of the City of Pueblo is to assure that the public has confidence in the integrity of all aspects of City government and the public servants that exercise discretionary powers.
- (2) Framework and Purpose of Code of Ethics.
 - a. Framework. This code of ethics should evoke a commitment to maintain high ethical standards. The following provisions form the framework of the essential principles of Pueblo public service conduct and ethics:
 1. Public Interest. Treat public service as a public trust, only using the power and resources of public service to advance public interest and not to attain personal or private benefit.
 2. Objective Judgment. Employ independent, objective judgment in performing duties, deciding all matters on the merits, free from avoidable conflicts of interest and both real and apparent improper influences.
 3. Accountability. Assure that government is conducted openly, efficiently, equitably and honorably in a manner that permits the citizenry to make informed judgments and hold public servants accountable.
 4. Democratic Leadership. Honor and respect the principles and spirit of representative democracy and set a positive example of good citizenship by scrupulously observing the letter and spirit of laws and rules.
 5. Respectability. Safeguard public confidence in the integrity of government by being honest, fair, caring and respectful, and by avoiding conduct creating the appearance of impropriety or which is otherwise unbecoming a public servant.
 - b. Purpose of Code of Ethics. The purpose of the code of ethics is to:
 1. State principles of conduct and ethics which are to be applied in public service;
 2. Help motivate public servants to pursue productive conduct and ethical ideals which exceed minimum standards;

3. Provide a process by which public servants may identify and resolve conduct and ethical issues;

4. Identify minimum standards of ethical conduct for public servants;
5. Inform the public of the minimum standards to which their public servants are expected to adhere;
6. Promote public confidence in the integrity of public servants;
7. Encourage members of the public to serve Pueblo and its public by seeking public office or employment and to take pride in participating in the governmental process;
8. Establish penalties, when appropriate, for public servants who violate the public trust; and
9. Protect to the fullest extent possible the rights of all individuals who are subject in any way to the provisions of the code of ethics.

Sec. 1-9-2. - Definitions.

As used in this Chapter, unless the context otherwise requires:

- (1) Boards and commissions means all boards and commissions appointed by the City Council.
- (2) Business means any corporation, limited liability company, partnership, sole proprietorship, trust or foundation, or other individual or organization carrying on a business, whether or not operated for profit.
- (3) City official means an elected or appointed official of the City, including the Mayor, Deputy Mayor, a department director and appointed members of boards and commissions, but excluding an employee of the City.
- (4) Compensation means any money, thing of value or economic benefit conferred on or received by any person in return for services rendered or to be rendered by himself or herself or another.
- (5) Domestic partner means an unmarried adult, unrelated by blood, with whom an unmarried employee has an exclusive committed relationship, maintains a mutual residence, and shares basic living expenses.
- (6) Employee means any temporary or permanent employee of the City but excluding a City official and excluding employees of the Board of Water Works of Pueblo, Colorado.
- (7) Family means domestic partner and any person related by blood, marriage (in-law), step or adoption, in any of the following degrees: parent, spouse, children, brothers, sisters, nephews, nieces, aunts, uncles, first cousins, grandparents and grandchildren. A divorce or separation between spouses shall not be deemed to terminate the relationships described herein.
- (8) Financial interest means a substantial interest held by an individual which is:
 - a. An ownership interest in a business;
 - b. A creditor interest in an insolvent business;
 - c. An employment or a prospective employment for which negotiations have begun;

- d. An ownership interest in real or personal property;
 - e. A loan or any other debtor interest; or
 - f. A directorship or official ship in a business.
- (9) Official act or official action means any vote, decision, recommendation, approval, disapproval or other action, including inaction, which involves the use of discretionary authority.

Sec. 1-9-3. - Public trust; breach of fiduciary duty.

- (a) The holding of public office or employment is a public trust, created by the confidence which the electorate reposes in the integrity of City officials and employees. A City official or employee shall carry out his or her duties and services in a competent, unbiased, open and honest manner for the benefit of the people of the City and shall maintain the highest standards of personal and professional conduct, decorum and integrity.
- (b) A City official or employee whose conduct departs from his or her fiduciary duty is liable to the people of the City as a trustee of property and shall suffer such other liabilities as a private fiduciary would suffer for abuse of his or her trust. The City Attorney may bring appropriate judicial proceedings on behalf of the people of the City. Any moneys collected in such actions shall be paid to the general fund of the City. Judicial proceedings pursuant to this Section shall be in addition to any criminal action which may be brought against such City official or employee.

Sec. 1-9-4. - Rules of conduct for all City officials and employees.

- (a) Proof beyond a reasonable doubt of commission of any act enumerated in this Section is proof that the actor has breached his or her fiduciary duty and the public trust. A City official or an employee shall not:
 - (1) Disclose or use confidential information acquired in the course of his or her official duties in order to further substantially his or her personal financial interests; or
 - (2) Accept a gift of substantial value or a substantial economic benefit tantamount to a gift of substantial value:
 - a. Which would tend improperly to influence a reasonable person in his or her position to depart from the faithful and impartial discharge of his or her public duties; or
 - b. Which he or she knows or which a reasonable person in his or her position should know under the circumstances is primarily for the purpose of rewarding him or her for official action he or she has taken.
- (b) An economic benefit tantamount to a gift of substantial value includes without limitation a loan at a rate of interest substantially lower than the commercial rate then currently prevalent for similar loans and compensation received for private services rendered at a rate substantially exceeding the fair market value of such services.
- (c) The following shall not be considered gifts of substantial value or gifts of substantial economic benefit tantamount to gifts of substantial value for purposes of this Section:

- (1) Campaign contributions and contributions in kind reported as required by Section 5-2-1;
 - (2) An occasional nonpecuniary gift, insignificant in value;
 - (3) A nonpecuniary award publicly presented by a nonprofit organization in recognition of public service;
 - (4) Payment of or reimbursement for actual and necessary expenditures for travel and subsistence for attendance at a convention or other meeting at which such City official or employee is scheduled to participate;
 - (5) Reimbursement for or acceptance of an opportunity to participate in a social function or meeting which is offered to such City official or employee which is not extraordinary when viewed in light of the position held by such City official or employee;
 - (6) Items of perishable or nonpermanent value, including, but not limited to, meals, lodging, travel expenses or tickets to sporting, recreational, educational or cultural events;
 - (7) Payment for speeches, appearances or publications reported pursuant to Section 24-6-203, C.R.S.;
 - (8) Compensation from employment, including other government employment, in addition to that earned from being a member of the City Council or by reason of service in other public office.
- (d) The provisions of this Section are distinct from and in addition to the reporting requirements of Section 5-2-1 of this Code and Section 24-6-203, C.R.S. and do not relieve an incumbent in or elected candidate to public office of the City from reporting an item described in Subsection (c) above, if such reporting provisions apply.

Sec. 1-9-5. - Ethical principles.

- (a) The principles in this Section are intended as guides to conduct and do not constitute violations as such of the public trust of office or employment in the City.
- (b) A City official or an employee should not acquire or hold an interest in any business or undertaking which he or she has reason to believe may be directly and substantially affected to its economic benefit by official action to be taken by an agency, official or employee over which he or she has substantive authority.
- (c) A City official or an employee should not, within six (6) months following the termination of his or her office or employment, obtain employment in which he or she will take direct advantage, unavailable to others, of matters with which he or she was directly involved during his or her term of employment. These matters include rules, other than rules of general application, which he or she actively helped to formulate and applications, claims or contested cases in the consideration of which he or she was an active participant.
- (d) A City official or an employee should not perform an official act directly and substantially affecting a business or other undertaking to its economic detriment when he or she has a substantial financial interest in a competing firm or undertaking.

Sec. 1-9-6. - Disclosure of information.

No City official or employee shall disclose any information or records that are not available to the public, which were acquired in the course of public office duties, except in the performance of public office duties or as required by law or court order. Records or discussions of an executive session of City Council or a board or commission shall not be disclosed except pursuant to Section 24-6-402(2)(d.5)(II)(D), C.R.S.

Sec. 1-9-7. - Personal interest rules of conduct for City officials and employees.

- (a) Proof beyond a reasonable doubt of commission of any act enumerated in this Section is proof that the actor has breached his or her fiduciary duty and the public trust.
- (b) A City official or employee shall not:
 - (1) Engage in a substantial financial transaction for his or her private business purposes with a person whom he or she inspects or supervises in the course of his or her official duties; or
 - (2) Perform an official act directly and substantially affecting to its economic benefit a business or other undertaking in which he or she or his or her family either has a substantial financial interest or is engaged as counsel, consultant, representative or agent.
- (c) A member of the City Council who or whose family has a personal or private interest in any matter proposed or pending before the City Council shall disclose such interest to the City Council and shall not vote thereon and shall refrain from attempting to influence the decisions of the other members of the City Council in voting on the matter.
- (d) It shall not be a breach of fiduciary duty and the public trust, nor a violation of any provision of this Chapter, for a City official or employee to:
 - (1) Use City facilities or equipment to communicate or correspond with a member's constituents, family members or business associates;
 - (2) Accept or receive a benefit as an indirect consequence of transacting City business; or
 - (3) Take direct official action on the following matters even if the person or a relative employed by the City would benefit:
 - a. The City's annual budget or an amendment to the annual budget; or
 - b. Establishing the pay or fringe benefit plans of City officials, employees or officers. Notwithstanding this Subparagraph b., City Council members' pay shall be established pursuant to Section 2-1 of the Charter.

Sec. 1-9-8. - Penalty.

Any individual who is found to have violated any provision of this code of ethics shall be liable to the City for double the amount of financial equivalent of any benefits obtained by such actions. The manner of recovery and any additional penalties may be as provided by law. City employees and non-elected City officials who violate this code of ethics are also subject to appropriate disciplinary action, up to and including termination of employment.

Sec. 1-9-9. - Powers of the City Attorney.

The City Attorney may issue advisory opinions to persons subject to the provisions of this Chapter concerning issues relating to the requesting person's conduct and the provisions of this Chapter with such deletions as are necessary to protect the identity of the requesting party or the party about whom the opinion is written. The requesting person may also request an advisory opinion from the Secretary of State pursuant to Section 24-18-111, C.R.S.

Sec. 1-9-10. - Interests in contracts.

City officials or employees shall not be interested in any contract made by them in their official capacity or by any body, agency or board of which they are members or employees. A former employee may not, within six (6) months following the termination of his or her employment, contract or be employed by an employer who contracts with the City involving matters with which he or she was directly involved during his or her employment. For purposes of this Section, the term:

- (1) Be interested in does not include holding a minority interest in a corporation.
- (2) Contract does not include:
 - a. Contracts awarded to the lowest responsible bidder based on competitive bidding procedures;
 - b. Merchandise sold to the highest bidder at public auctions;
 - c. Investments or deposits in financial institutions which are in the business of loaning or receiving moneys;
 - d. A contract with respect to which any City official or employee has disclosed a personal interest and has not voted thereon. Any such disclosure shall be made to the City Council.

Sec. 1-9-11. - Interest in sales or purchases.

- (a) City officials shall not be purchasers at any sale or vendors at any purchase made by them in their official capacity.
- (b) Notwithstanding anything contained in this Chapter to the contrary, no City official or employee of the City shall be financially interested, directly or indirectly, in the sale of any land, materials, supplies or services to the City, except it be by competitive bidding or not exceeding the sum of one hundred dollars ($100.00) in any calendar year; in cases of emergency necessary to protect the public health, safety and welfare, competitive bidding may be waived. Members of boards or commissions shall be permitted to provide technical or professional services to the City where such services are exempt from the requirements of competitive bidding.

Sec. 1-9-12. - Voidable contracts.

Every contract made in violation of any of the provisions of Section 1-9-10 or 1-9-11 shall be voidable at the instance of any party to the contract except the City official interested therein.

Sec. 1-9-13. - Applicability.

This Chapter shall apply to all elected and appointed officials of the City, all employees of the City and all City boards and commissions. This Chapter is intended to conform, as nearly as may be, to Article 18, Title 24, C.R.S. To the end that the interpretation of this Chapter shall be uniform with the interpretation of such state law, the content of each section has, as near as practicable, been kept consistent with such state law applicable to local government officials, employees and boards and commissions. However, all matters referred to herein are expressly and specifically declared to be local and municipal matters under Article XX of the Constitution of the State, and in the event of conflict between this Chapter and Article 18, Title 24, C.R.S., this Chapter shall govern and control.

- (4) Subordinate means an employee who is subject to the authority of a supervisor.
- (5) Supervisor means a City official who has authority to undertake or recommend tangible employment decisions affecting an employee or who has authority to direct, in part or whole, the employee's work activities.

Sec. 1-9-21. - Restrictions.

- (a) City officials are prohibited from occupying a position in the direct line of supervision with respect to any employee who is a relative. The City shall attempt to take steps to mitigate or avoid such violations whenever reasonably possible. If circumstances require that a City official temporarily occupy a position in direct line of supervision of a relative, reasonable efforts shall be made to refer matters involving the involved employee to an uninvolved supervisor.
- (b) A City official is prohibited from engaging in or maintaining a personal relationship with any subordinate employee of the City official.
- (c) City officials are prohibited from participating in appointments, promotions, or other hiring decisions with respect to any employee who is a relative or with whom they are involved in a personal relationship.

Sec. 1-9-22. - City official responsibility.

Upon entering into any personal relationship that the City official knows or reasonably should know could create a violation of this Article II, the City official shall promptly notify his or her uninformed, immediate supervisor.

Sec. 1-9-23. - Exemption.

City officials shall be exempt from the prohibition set forth in Subsection 1-9-31(a) with respect to any relative who is an employee of the City as of the effective date of Subsection 1-9-21(a). The scope of this exemption will be limited to the positions held by the City official and the City official's relative(s) on said effective date and shall not apply to any change in such positions.

Sec. 1-9-24. - Waiver.

When there is a change in the individuals constituting the relatives of a City official which would result in a violation of Subsection 1-9-21(a), the City official may request a waiver of the prohibition set forth in Subsection 1-9-21(a). Such request shall be submitted to and may be granted by the Mayor where the City official establishes:

- (1) A waiver will be in the best interest of the City; and
- (2) The City official can and will abstain from participating in any employment decision affecting the relative or appropriate measures can be implemented to reasonably mitigate any conflict of interest.

Secs. 1-9-25—1-9-29. - Reserved.

Article III - Complaint Procedure

Sec. 1-9-30. - Complaints against City officials and employees.

- (a) Any person may file a verified written complaint with the Mayor charging a failure to comply with a provision of this code of ethics by a City employee (other than a Municipal Judge or an elected City official) and non-elected City officials. The Mayor shall investigate or direct a department head of the City to investigate such a complaint. Nothing in this subsection shall limit City Council's ability to investigate pursuant to Section 3-5 of the Charter of the City of Pueblo.
- (b) Any person may file a verified written complaint with the President of the City Council charging a failure to comply with a provision of this code of ethics by the Mayor, a Municipal Judge or elected City officials. The President of the City Council shall investigate such a complaint. If the complaint is against the President of the City Council, the complaint shall be filed with and investigated by the Vice-President of the City Council. If an ethics complaint is filed against a member of the City Council, that member shall be prohibited from investigating or voting to take action on the complaint.
- (c) Complaints which fail to state a claim of a violation of this code of ethics shall be dismissed.
- (d) Any complaint against a City employee and any action taken with respect thereto (including, but not limited to, documents placed in the City employee's personnel file) shall remain confidential, unless confidentiality is waived by the City employee.

Appendix II. CIRSA: Ethics Training for Boards and Commissions

As a member of a Board or Commission, it is important to know and adhere to best practices and lead by example. The City of Pueblo's insurance carrier, CIRSA (Colorado Intergovernmental Risk Sharing Agency), provides training with regard to liability issues of board and commission members. All members of City boards and commissions are required to complete the training within six (6) months of appointment. A notification will be sent to the Boards and Commissions Coordinator when you access this webinar.

The webinar is just under 30 minutes, please allow yourself time to watch without distractions. Boards and Commissions members may access the webinar here:
