Attempted Kidnapping Arrest

February 20, 2019 [FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE]

On February 19, 2019 at approximately 5:30 p.m., officers were dispatched to a residence in the 3000 block of Lake Avenue on a report of home invasion. Officers received information that a female was being held by an armed male suspect. The information was provided to the Police Department by a third-hand reporting party who was on an open telephone line with the victim.

Upon arrival, officers learned the exact location of the residence where the incident was occurring. Officers then contacted a male and female outside of the residence as they attempting to enter a vehicle. Through investigation, it was learned that the female was being held against her will by the male, 65-year-old Bryan Mihelich. Mihelich, who was found to be armed with a handgun on his person, was taken into custody at the scene.

Mihelich was later booked into the Pueblo County Detention Center on the charges of Felony Menacing and Attempted 1st Degree Kidnapping.
