

PRESS RELEASE

City of Pueblo Police Department

Request for Information

June 9, 2021 [FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE]

On May 23, 2021 at approximately 9:50 a.m., Pueblo police officers responded to area of Baystate Avenue and E. Evans Avenue regarding an aggravated robbery.

Upon arrival, officers contacted a female who reported that she was walking with her dog southbound on the sidewalk in the 300 block of E. Evans Avenue when a vehicle pulled into the adjacent parking lot. The female told the officers that she heard a female yell from the vehicle, ordering her (the victim) to give her (the female in the vehicle) dog back. The victim explained that the two females exited the vehicle, assaulted her, and stole her dog. The victim reported that the females got back into the vehicle with her dog and sped off.

The victim described the two females as Black, one heavy-set with purple hair and the other wearing a white shirt. The victim added that the vehicle was driven by a Hispanic male with a white shirt.

Police detectives are requesting the public's assistance in identifying the individuals involved in this incident. If you have any information about this incident, please call Detective Jeff Maize at (719) 553-3281.
