

PRESS RELEASE

City of Pueblo Police Department

Armed Robbery

September 21, 2021 [FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE]

On September 21, 2021, at approximately 4:00 a.m., Pueblo Police responded to 1100 W. US HWY 50 (Super 8 Motel) on an armed robbery that just occurred.

The suspect, described as a slim-build male, entered the front lobby with a small/compact silver in color handgun demanding money and threatening to shoot her.

Video was obtained which provided a detailed description of a white male, approximately 20-30 years old, wearing a black mask, hat with a brown bill covered by a gray hoody with a black t-shirt over the top and dark pants. On the front upper left corner of the black t-shirt it read, "Hustle" printed in white. There was also a design in light color going down the side of the shirt on the right side from the shoulder area. The suspect also had dark motorcycle/biker riding gloves on with a small red tag that could be seen on the right glove. The suspects shoes appeared to be white basketball style shoes with black in the tongue area and sides directly to the side of the ankles. Once the suspect received the money, he ran north across the highway.
