

PRESS RELEASE

City of Pueblo Police Department

ROBBERY ARREST

March 13, 2022 [FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE]

On March 12, 2022, at approximately 7:58 p.m., Pueblo Police Officers were dispatched to Hobby Lobby, located in the 3000 blk of Hart Rd. on a report of an armed robbery that just occurred. A male party who was concealing items was confronted by employees. The male brandished a handgun and fled the store in a vehicle with out-of-state plates. A description of the suspect and vehicle was provided to responding units.

An officer who happened to be in the area was able to locate the vehicle nearby at a local gas station and initiated a traffic stop. The male, Jordan Zubia-Brown (32) was ultimately identified as the same suspect who committed the robbery. Items stolen from the store and what appeared to be a handgun were also located in plain view within the suspect vehicle. The vehicle was towed pending a search warrant.

Jordan was transported to the Pueblo County Detention Center and booked in on charges of Aggravated Robbery, a class 3 felony.
