City of Pueblo Police Department

Carjacking Arrests

May 9, 2022

On Saturday, May 7, 2022 at approximately 3:00 p.m., Pueblo Police were sent to the 3200 block of Baystate Ave on an armed carjacking. The victim told dispatch her vehicle was stolen by three males with pistols and described them as wearing masks and hoodies.

While heading toward the call, an officer observed a vehicle matching the description of the vehicle at Northern Ave and Berkley Ave and it was occupied by three males wearing masks. The vehicle refused to stop for police and a short pursuit ensued. Officers were able to successfully perform a Pursuit Intervention Technique (PIT) maneuver in the 400 block of W Northern Ave.

Three juvenile males were taken into custody and positively identified as the males involved in the carjacking. A loaded 9mm Taurus handgun was found in the vehicle. All three males have an extended violent criminal history and are documented gang members. All three males have active restraining orders that stated they are prohibited from possessing and/or purchasing a firearm or other weapon.

All three were screened into Pueblo Youth Center for Aggravated Robbery, 1st Degree Motor Vehicle Theft, and Restraining Order Violation. One suspect had a current felony warrant for Weapons Charges. Another suspect was identified as having the gun and was charged with Possession of a Firearm By a Juvenile. The driver was charged with Felony Eluding.
