City of Pueblo Police Department

Stolen Car Arrest

May 9, 2022

On Saturday, May 7, 2022 at approximately 10:47 a.m., Pueblo Police were looking for a wanted person, 38-year-old Candido Aragon in the 1-100 block of Thames Dr. Aragon had previously rammed a marked patrol car on May 1, 2022. Aragon had two felony warrants for his arrests.

Police devised a plan to arrest Aragon and because of this effective plan, Aragon surrendered without incident. Aragon was in a stolen car. A 9mm handgun and a sawed-off 20-gauge shotgun were recovered from the vehicle.

Aragon is a convicted felon. He could not be charged with Possession of a Weapon by Previous Offender due to recent changes to the law. Aragon was featured in the Safe Streets Criminal program.

Candido was booked in on his warrants, 1st degree motor vehicle theft, and possession of a dangerous or illegal weapon. Additional new charges are pending.
