

Passenger Code of Conduct:

The mission of Pueblo Transit is to provide safe, reliable, and timely transit service to the public in a courteous and professional manner as cost effectively as possible.

To provide safe, reliable, and timely transportation, Pueblo Transit asks its customers to follow a set of behavioral guidelines called Thoughtful Transit.

Thoughtful Transit focuses on providing a safe, convenient, and thoughtful experience to all customers, while also discouraging disruptive or antisocial behaviors.

Being respectful of other customers and Pueblo Transit employees does not take more than common courtesy.

Purpose:

Pueblo Transit strives to ensure that everyone is treated fairly and has equal access to transportation.

Pueblo Transit established this code of conduct setting forth rules prohibiting certain conduct that may adversely affect the use of Pueblo Transit buses, facilities and property including parking lots, bus stops and bus shelters.

Prior to enforcement, Pueblo Transit will make every attempt to educate a person on conduct prohibited by this code. However, any person who engages in prohibited conduct may be subject to enforcement ranging from a verbal or written warning, immediate suspension, or a criminal citation (see enforcement section).

Authority:

This code of conduct was approved by the Transit Director on 12-4-2023

The ADA and Reasonable Modification:

Under the Americans with disabilities Act (ADA), transportation entities are required to make reasonable modifications to their policies, practices, and procedures to avoid discrimination and ensure that their programs are accessible to individuals with disabilities. In accordance with this directive, Pueblo Transit will make every effort to the maximum extent feasible, to ensure that a person with a disability has access to, and benefits from, its services.

Pueblo Transit will make reasonable modifications to its policies, programs, and procedures applicable to its transportation services when necessary to avoid discrimination and ensure accessibility for people with disabilities.

There may be certain situations when Pueblo Transit policies, and procedures do not achieve ADA objectives/accessibility. A modification to these policies and procedures may be needed to ensure that a passenger with a disability has access to our services.

When making a reasonable modification for an individual with a disability, the modification is not intended to:

- Cause a direct threat to the health and safety of others.
- Create undue financial and administrative burdens.
- Constitute a fundamental alteration to a service.
- Be more than necessary to provide equal access to a Transit service.

Enforcement:

Pueblo Transit will comply with the Americans with Disability act and Title VI of the civil acts in the administration of this code of conduct.

If violations of this Code of Conduct appear or are claimed to be caused by a disability, Pueblo Transit personnel are to contact dispatch or management for advice and assistance.

Enforcement will be conducted in a fair and reasonable manner. A person who engages in any of the above prohibited conduct may be warned and/or ordered to immediately exit Pueblo Transit vehicle, facility, or property by law enforcement, TNT Security, Pueblo Transit Management, or other Authorized Transit personnel. Such personnel are authorized to issue an order to the person to exit Transit property for the remainder of the service day.

Situations where a person refuses to leave a Pueblo Transit vehicle, facility, or property after being ordered to do so may be considered trespassing and may be referred to law enforcement personnel.

A person who engages in any of the above prohibited conduct may also, or instead, be issued a suspension by Pueblo Transit, suspending the person from all Transit vehicles, properties, and services for a determined amount of time pursuant to Pueblo Transit's Service Suspension policy and procedures.

A person ordered to leave or suspended from Pueblo Transit property will not be entitled to any refund or unused transfer.

Suspension or orders to exit Pueblo Transit property may be appealed pursuant to Transit's Service Suspension policy and procedures.

In addition to any other enforcement under this code, illegal activity may result in a citation under any applicable federal, state, or local law, regulation, or ordinance, including C.R.S 18-9-114- Hindering Transportation (class 2 Misdemeanor), and C.R.S. 18-9-115- endangering Public Transportation and Utility Transmission (class 3 Felony).

This code of conduct does not seek to limit, replace, or conflict with any federal, state, or local law, regulation or ordinance and does not limit or prevent any law enforcement agency or entity from taking any lawful action against any person in or on any Pueblo Transit vehicle, facility, or property.
